

SANTA SECTS

Standing in line, I could hear small voices speaking with great excitement about the vast array of toys in their line of site. As each wish list was confirmed by good old Saint Nick, the line shortened for me and my anticipation grew. "What do I really want? Have I been good? Sure I have and as proof, we already decorated the mantle with all the trimmings to make him feel right at home when it is our turn for his visit. This is going to be the best Christmas yet!" Then I heard a voice from off to the side... "Aren't you a little old for Santa?" I paused in puzzlement and responded as anyone should... "Gosh, I hope not."
